

Gold in Texas OSINT!

Conducted a 5 year long investigation to find gold in Texas.

The idea first came up after being interested in digging for gold my whole life but living in Texas. Quick research online will find that there are little to no gold deposits in Texas.

The only stories of gold being found in Texas went back to an old farmer named Old Ben.

Old Ben was a farmer that had a secret gold mine filled with lots of gold. This was the only mention of lots of gold being found in Texas.

None of this research for the first few years led to any good information about reliable places I could dig for gold.

Upon doing my yearly OSINT on this topic 2 years ago I found a new Youtube channel of someone that hunts for gold in Texas. This was an amazing find. I quickly went through all of his videos. I utilized many different tactics to try and find the locations he was digging at but there was no luck. On July 27, 2023 he posted a new video hinting at this new location he found that was close to Austin, Texas.

(Looking back at the video Long was shown a few minutes in on the building)

It was almost a year since the video had been posted. This was it. I now live in Austin Texas. I had to take the chance to comment and ask him where he was digging for gold.

An hour later i had my answer.

Long's Fishing Camp and Dig!

There it was.. A place I could finally go to dig for gold in Texas only two hours outside of Austin.

If you want to dig for gold by yourself or with me here is the information for the site!
